

Volunteering opportunity at Brest University- Student Life, events management and communication

UBO: The Université de Bretagne Occidentale is a public institution founded in 1971. UBO is a medium-sized university (around 23,000 students) offering a wide range of programs in all fields. UBO is in Brittany, on the north-western coast of France. It is a multicampus university, with the main site in Brest (where the activities will mainly take place). UBO is member of SEA-EU, European University of the Seas, with several projects involving its partner universities.

UBO is planning to recruit two volunteers for the academic year 2025-2026, with the same profile.

Activities will take place in the departments called DAI and DiViCC. The International Affairs Office (DAI) and the Campus Life and Culture Office (DiViCC) are services of the University of Brest, located at the heart of the Brest campus.

The DAI has several missions, including the welcoming of international students. More than 500 students representing more than 100 nationalities are welcomed each year at the DAI. In addition to the physical reception, during which several administrative formalities are explained, the DAI organizes various operations that allow students to better integrate into the campus and, more globally, into the Finistère region.

The DiViCC is in charge of the cultural service, student life office and the support service for specific needs.

It's mission is to support and encourage student's cultural projects and practices, support students in their campus life and projects, encourage their personal development, offer personalized support taking into account the specific needs of each individual and develop the autonomy of students.
